AN ANNUAL STATEWIDE JURIED EXHIBITION
PRESENTED BY THE ARTERY OF DAVIS

DEADLINE: February 16, 2019

EXHIBITION DATES: May 3 - May 31, 2019

RECEPTION: Friday, May 3, 2019, 7-9 p.m.

The Artery, home of the Artists' Cooperative of Davis, has sponsored the California Clay Competition since 1990 to give California ceramic artists an opportunity to exhibit their work during the California Conference for the Advancement of Ceramic Art.

ELIGIBILITY: The competition is open to all artists residing in California. Works accepted must be for sale, available for the duration of the exhibit and made within the last two years. Works may be functional or sculptural.

MEDIUM & SIZE: Clay must be the primary medium. Works may be functional or sculptural. Assembled works must fit through a standard doorframe and weigh no more than can easily be handled by two people. All artwork must be presented and ready for display. Wall pieces must include all mounting hardware; wire and/or cleats preferred.

AWARDS: Monetary and gift awards will be announced at the opening reception.

COMMISSIONS: The Artery will retain a 50% commission on all sales resulting from the exhibition.

Juror: Bill Abright - Ceramic Artist - Abright was introduced to clay by Bruce Duke at San Joaquin Delta College in Stockton in the late 60's. He completed his graduate degree at San Francisco State in 1974 working with Bud McKee, Stephen De Staebler, Joe Hawley and David Kuraoka. Abright has taught ceramics at the College of Marin in Kentfield, CA since 1975 and has been influential in the lives of many artists. He has exhibited throughout the U.S. and his work is in many private and museum collections. more info: www.billabright.com
